

Honoring our 25th Infantry Division Warriors Brick by Brick

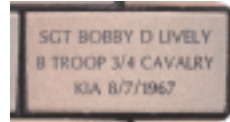

Mark your place in history! Become a permanent part of the Schofield Memorial Monument dedicated to four generations of warriors from WWII, Korea Vietnam, Operation Enduring Freedom, and Operation Iraqi Freedom by purchasing a commemorative brick paver to be displayed on a ceremonial courtyard located adjacent to the Monument. Join our many supporters who have purchased an engraved brick paver for themselves or to honor a loved one or a friend. You can order the brick pavers in two sizes: 4 x 8 inches containing up to three lines of type for $100.00 or 8 x 8 inches containing up to six lines of type for $250.00.

The initial order of bricks was installed in 2006. The time is right to get your brick or block order in for the 2007 installation. Commemorative bricks will continue to sell until the ceremonial courtyard is complete. There will be a limited number of bricks sold (3200 4 x 8 bricks and 120 8 x 8 bricks), so place your order now before the courtyard is filled with engraved bricks.

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS MEMORIAL PRINTS

On the occasion of the official dedication of the Schofield Barracks Memorial in 2006, the 25th Infantry Division Association commissioned Hawaii artist Eric Lon Caldwell to create an original artwork of the Schofield Barracks Memorial. Caldwell captured sculptor Lynn Weiler Liverton's inspiring statues of Tropic Lightning Soldiers of World War II, Korea, Vietnam and the ongoing War on Terrorism as they gaze on the boots, rifle and helmet of a fallen comrade. Titled, "United by Sacrifice," the Memorial reminds us of the terrible cost of war, the legacy of the sacrifices of our Soldiers of four generations, and the support for the modern Soldier by those who preceded him in earlier wars. Printed on a heavy card stock in sepia and gold colors, the 10.5" by 13" prints are suitable for framing. A limited-edition of 250 prints, signed and numbered by sculptor Lynn Weiler Liverton and artist Eric Lon Caldwell are also available while supplies last. Please use this form to order your print today! Proceeds of sales go to the 25th Infantry Division Memorial Fund [an IRS certified 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization].
